RESPONSE TO NOTICE OF ABANDONMENT

Sir:

Responsive to the Notice of Abandonment mailed December 19, 2001, applicants respectfully request that the application be revived as unintentionally abandoned. A response to the Office Action mailed December 28, 2000, was mailed with a three month extension of time on June 28, 2001. A copy of the postcard showing receipt is enclosed. A Response to the Notice to Comply with Requirements for Patent Applications Containing Nucleotide Sequences mailed as part of the Office Action mailed December 28, 2000, was mailed April 19, 2001. A copy of the postcard showing receipt is enclosed. A Response to the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment mailed July 12, 2001, was mailed on July 31, 2001. A copy of the postcard showing receipt is enclosed.

A second Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment was then mailed August 24, 2001.

Since it was unclear what the problem was with the Amendment, a telephone call was made to

U.S.N.: 09/500,904
Filed: February 9, 2000
Response to Notice of Abandonment

the examiner on September 13, 2001, which she returned on September 14, 2001, telling my secretary Jean Hicks she would look into the case and call back. She did not call back. On October 24, 2001, I called the examiner who at that time said the amendments to the specification were the problem, not the amendments to the claims. A Revised Response to the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment was then mailed October 24, 2001. This was re-faxed (a copy of the postcard as well as the fax cover sheet are enclosed) on December 7, 2001, when a call was made to the Patent Office and we were told the Response had not been received. After a further conversation with the Patent Office regarding the Notice to comply with requirements for the Sequence Listing, a further response to the Notice to Comply with Requirements for the Sequence Listing was then sent by mail on December 11, 2001.

Applicants have received no notice that the replies were not timely filed nor that they were inadequate until the Notice of Abandonment. Any delays in responding to the Office Action mailed December 28, 2000, were entirely unintentional. Accordingly, it is believed this application should not be abandoned, or if abandoned, that full and complete responses have been filed and the application should be revived.

Respectfully submitted,

Patrea L. Pabst
